

nVent CADDY Rod Lock Strut Clip

The nVent CADDY Rod Lock Strut Clip is an innovative accessory featuring push-to-install technology that allows users to quickly affix and adjust multi-level trapeze assemblies. Simply push into place to secure attachment to varying strut profile types, positions and sizes. This intuitive, tool-free solution eliminates the need for the manual insertion required with traditional conduit racks, ultimately reducing setup time and maximizing safety by reducing time spent at elevated heights for installation.

Leverage the time-saving benefits of the nVent CADDY Rod Lock Strut Clip and quickly install on-site or prefabricate in advance to maintain tight project schedules.

FEATURES

Easy-to-use finger tabs can grip onto any length of strut

Allows fine-tuning of system height, adapting to varying rod-to-rod positions on the trapeze
